Hi Everyone;

Welcome to issue #29. I have one Acquire game filled, but Melody is running it and the startup notice will be sent out by her. You'll be able to follow it here.

The Regular Dip game is full and I've taken on an orphan.

My 7 X 7 Tournament is over, the total results will be in issue #30.

My He-Man Titan game is filled up, and startup notices are being sent out.

So, the only game open right now is a couple of spots for Regular Dip ($8.00).

Melinda Holley, Larry Botimer, Roger Cox and some new blood are in. If it fills before next deadline, I'll start it.

DipCon/PoolCon is coming up. BIG flyer coming out next issue. DipCon is July 3- 5.

PoolCon is July 6- 12.

I hope that most of you can come.

Check your deadline dates. Some are May 9, some are May 16th. See you all next month!!

7 X 7 Gunboat Tournament ENDS!!

People's Diplomacy Organization Relief Auction

Douglas Kent 54 West Cherry St, #211 Rahway, NJ 07065

3-23-92

Greetings!

It's that time of year again - time for the PDORA to try and raise money to help fund hobby services. Last year we raised over $525. This will be my first year running the auction, so hopefully we'll be able to make it as successful as those that John Caruso did.

It's you the hobbyist who makes the auction a success. So please, if you're a publisher, plug the auction. If you have something you'd like to auction off to help raise money, by all means now is the time to contact me. What I need at this time is the information on the items you wish to auction, not the items themselves - those should be sent to the successful bidders later on. You may give me a short description to include, and minimum bid and any postage costs. All items provided for auction will be listed in a booklet which will be mailed out around the end of May. If you do not receive a copy of the auction booklet by mid-June, they may be obtained from me for a SASE of simply by request for one. No request will be refused.

The kinds of items you may offer for auction may include but are not limited to: subscriptions to your zine, game openings, games, horoscopes, coins, stamps, old zines, Dipdom memorabilia, photographs, or any number of other items whether related to Dipdom or not.

If you have a hobby service that you'd like to submit a funding request to PDORA for, by all means do so. All you need to do is let me know what the service is, and how much money you are requesting. If I need further information about your request I'll be in touch. All funding requests will be passed on to the Financial Committee for consideration, after the auction has ended and the bids collected. If you have any questions, please let me know.

Thank you for your help in making the PDORA a success.

Zines By The Pound!

North American Zine Bank (NAZB)

Garret Schenck, 40 3rd Place, Bsmt. Apt., Brooklyn, NY 11231-3302

Looking for a new zine to subscribe to? Thinking about signing up for another game? You could dig up some publishers' names and addresses out of one of the zines you're currently getting, send each a buck or some stamps for a sample, and wait until they get around to sending you their latest. But instead, why not write to the North American Zine Bank (NAZB), the service I run as a complement to Zine Register (ZR).

You see, most PBM publishers trade their zines for ZR. This keeps me current on the state of the hobby, allowing me to write up-to-date reviews for ZR. In return publishers get ZR when it comes out, approximately twice a year, and I also distribute the zines they send me. This means their trades do double duty, and help bring in additional subscribers for their zines, almost always a "good thing" for any publishing venture.

If you send me the modest fee of $3.00 (which covers 4th class postage rates), I'll bundle up as many zines as I can cram into a large manila envelope (at least two pounds of zines, and as much as four pounds, depending on how close you live to New York and the stock of zines on hand). This usually works out to anywhere from 20 to 40 samples, a real zine bonanza!

I have a pretty organized collection of back issues. This means you can request particular individual zines, certain classes of zines (i.e., all the rail or "choo-choo" zines, or only Diplomacy zines, that sort of thing), or you can tell me which zines you've already seen and don't need samples of. Personal service is more than just a marketing ploy at this bank!

Finally, for a limited time, you can get the NAZB/ZR super-duper combo package deal. Yup, for just $5.00 I'll send you a NAZB packet, with a set of zines personally selected just for you, along with the Fall 1991 issue of Zine Register (#19). This shaves fifty cents off the combined price of NAZB/ZR. Or, if you just want ZR you can get that for $2.50.
